25X1

Briefings for Mr. P. Coyne, Staff Director, President's Board of Consultants on Foreign Intelligence Activities

Introduction 1000, 20 August 59	Review of the Agency's organization, mission and functions. 25	5X1
	25	5X1
Collection of intelling 1400, 20 August 59	Igence information
·
	FI Staff, DDP. Foreign intelligence operations; information collection requirements
	and reports including coordination with US 25	5X1
		5X1 5X1
		5X1 ]
	EE and WE Divisions. Administering FI projects; guidance and direction to the field including RMD's; handling requirements and establishing priorities; reports processing.
	25	5X1

11,700

CI Staff, DDP. Protection of Agency operations oversess; countermeasures; counterespionage. Mr. Angleton. Office of Central Reference. Dissemination Dissemination of information reports and finished intelligence; limison with other Government agencies; storage and retrieval of intelligence information including the Library and Registries. ORR; OSI. Development of collection require-Intelligence Production ments; evaluation of information reports; programming finished intelligence production; methods of research and analysis; external research; intelligence committee activities. Messrs. Guthe & Scoville. OCI. Gurrent intelligence production; analysis, evaluation and coordination; dissemination; Comint staff responsibilities and activities. Mr. Sheldon. OBI. The WIS program; coordination, production and publication; support of other 25X1 agencies. ONE. Programming and production of Mational Estimates. Mr. Kent. National Indications Center. Agency participation in the MIC; early warning methods 25X1 and processes. M

Approved For Release 2002/08/21-- CIA-RDP80B01676R003100280013-6

Publications Committee. Agency measures to control Agency intelligence publications.
25X1
Support of Agency activities Office of Security. Personal and physical security measures; relations with FBI and CI Staff; investigative procedures including technical interrogation; audio countermeasures.
Col. Edwards.
Office of Training. Training programs and objectives; JOTP; Assessment and Evaluation;
foreign national training progress. Mr. Baird.
(A trip to should be scheduled when 25X1 convenient.)
Office of Communications. Review staff communications system including oversess bases
and emergency facilities; support to clandestine operations; R & D program; Training program for staff and agents. (A trip to 25X1 should be scheduled when convenient.) 25X1 Office of Logistics. The supply system including contracting and procurement; transportation; real estate, including oversess properties; the strategic reserve. Mr.
Garrison. (A trip t considered.)

Comptroller. The budget exercise; relations with ECB, GAO, Congressional Appropriations sub-committees; fiscal procedures and controls; methods of operational funding; handling finances in overseas posts. Mr. Saunders.

Projects Review Committee. Responsibilities and activities of FRC. Mr. Kirkpatrick.

	Audit Staff.	The audit	program,	, methods
and	procedures.
	Office of Per	sonnel. P	ersonnel	policies

methods of recruitment and assignment; the Selection Out program; personal services including out-placement, benefits and casualty, PSAS Honor awards; the Career Service program and the Career Staff; major personnel management problems including the need for achieving a better balance between age and grade. Mr.

25X1

25X1

Medical Staff. The Medical program;

physical and mental health standards; medical facilities overseas; medical support to operations.

Dr. Tietjen.

Management Staff. 0 & M responsibilities
and activities; records management, retirement, 25X1
vital documents; machine applications to Agency activities; suggestion awards program.

Approved For Release 2002/08/21 CIA RDP80B01676R003100280013-6

	General Counsel. Law suits and other l	.egal matters affecting the Agency. Mr. Houston.
	Legislative Counsel. The Agency's legislative program; legislation affecting the Agency. Mr. Kirkpatrick	25X1
Research & Development	Technical Services Staff, DDP. Research	ch
	and development in support of Agency operation	ional
	activities.	25X1		